HOST A DINE FOR DIGNITY EVENT

Do you like to cook? Okay, what about eat? You can do one (or both) and help spread the word about Opportunity by hosting a dinner, lunch, breakfast or other small gathering.

Dine for Dignity is a program that allows our fans and supporters the chance to raise funds and awareness for Opportunity International in an easy and fun way. In doing so, Dine for Dignity hosts are playing a key role in empowering people like the clients in the Progress Trust Group (right) in Colombia and around the world to work their way out of poverty.

Agricultural finance client Elizabeth Afrakome owns a three-acre cocoa farm in Adagya, Ghana. Along with loans, Opportunity provides her with financial literacy training, and access to savings and life insurance. "Now I can manage my whole life better," Elizabeth says. "I like knowing that my children are secure financially and that if they need anything, I can now afford it. I am also able to help others in my community and hold my head high."

DINE FOR DIGNITY CONNECTS SMALL GROUPS OF PEOPLE TO HELP TRANSFORM LIVES. LIKE OUR CLIENTS AND TRUST GROUPS.

TRUST GROUPS

Opportunity International Trust Groups help individuals break free from the limitations of poverty. They promote solidarity among a group of entrepreneurs—84% of whom are women—who guarantee each other's loans and support one another.

Members meet weekly to receive training in business practices, interpersonal relationships and healthcare issues. They benefit from deep connections with their group and loan officers as they experience previously unimaginable growth in their lives. Many become employers and role models. Even the most vulnerable can become powerful, active citizens creating lasting change in their families and communities.
